HEALING at the
WOUNDING PLACE

Since the end of the TRC there has been a lot of talk about reconciliation in our country, but have you wondered what you and your community could do next? Take another step with us in a journey toward right relationships.

justice, healing and the implications for the church in discipleship, worship and spiritual formation.

All are welcome. We are especially interested in bringing together church people, new immigrants and Indigenous peoples as we seek new ways of finding right relations.

Cost is $35.
