

Sponsored By:

Since the end of the TRC there has been a lot of talk about reconciliation in our country, but have you wondered what you and your community could do next? Take another step with us in the journey toward right relationships.

discipleship, worship and spiritual formation.

Friday evening join us for an interactive experience of the BC Blanket Exercise, an overview of the history of First Nations and settlers in BC and across Canada.

Participate in Indigenous and settler-led sessions that seek to catalyze action and understanding around the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples. Hear from local Indigenous leaders how this suggested framework for healing is and can be worked out on the ground.

All are welcome. We are especially interested in bringing together church people, new immigrants and Indigenous peoples as we seek new ways of finding right relations.

Cost is $40.

Register at: mypeopleinternational.com/events.html

Indigenous and non-Indigenous leaders will map the new geography for fostering the work of justice, healing and the implications for the church in

My People
 Nitiyinîmak
 Mon people
 kl'aayitsuxadiidis
 Oyate Mitawa
 Ntmimajuinung
 Akonkwetashón:'a ᐃᓄᓂᓂᓂᓂ
 Mi Pueblo